YLU Table Talk Thursday with Chief Catrina Thompson

Young Leaders United (YLU) held their Virtual Table Talk Thursday on September 24, 2020 with Winston-Salem Police Chief, Catrina Thompson. YLU wanted to hear from more community leaders to discuss current national as well as local issues happening right now that are impacting our community.

The conversation was facilitated by YLU County-wide Chair, Kelly Sutton.

“It was so powerful to hear from such an impressive community leader. Chief Thompson not only highlighted the incredible responsibility it is to care for the physical safety of citizens of Winston Salem, but also demonstrated her humility and willingness to serve others. After hearing from her, I feel motivated to put my words into action and to make Winston Salem a better place.”

Chief Thompson talked about her view on the current protests throughout the country, accountability for police departments, how United Way can help, and her challenges with recruiting. She also encouraged everyone to consider volunteering on the PTA (Parent Teacher Association) even if they don't have kids.

The next YLU Table Talk Thursday will take place on October 22, 2020 with Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools Superintendent, Dr. Angela Hairston.

United Way Car Giveaway

This year, The United Way and our partner agencies are needing support more than ever. That is why we have partnered with several car dealerships in Forsyth County to hold a car giveaway during this campaign season.

For every $100 donated or pledged to the United Way, you will receive an entry to win a car worth $25,000. You can enter up to 10 times ($1,000 donated).

Moonlight Madness!

THANK YOU to everyone who took part in our Virtual Moonlight Madness Weekend Race Challenge. We had over 115 participants and many postings of participants walking and running with neighbors, family, and friends. Thank you so much to everyone who helped to make this Moonlight Madness event a success!
